Ciudadella was originally commissioned by Mario Eskenazi's studio. It is a versatile geometric sans serif, a simple, clean and direct family. Its power resides in an overhaul simplicity that reflects an 'open' personality, easily suitable to be used across a wide range of applications, from identity systems to publications. Although it has been conceived to be used as a display typeface, it performs well in intermediate length texts mostly because of some specific characteristics such as the alternate two-story 'a'. It is available in Open Type format and includes Alternate Characters, Ligatures, Tabular Figures, Fractions, Numerators, Denominators, Superiors and Inferiors. It supports Central and Eastern European languages. The type family consists of 10 styles, 5 weights [Light, Regular, Medium, SemiBold and Bold] plus italics.

Sphinx of black quartz, judge my vow. Thief, give back my prized wax jonquils. The quick brown fox jumps over the lazy dog. Sixty zippers were quickly picked from the woven jute bag. Jaded zombies acted quaintly but kept driving their oxen forward. In a formula deus, qualem paulus creavit, dei negatio. Such a religion as christianity, which does not touch reality at a single point and which goes to pieces the moment reality asserts its rights at any point must be inevitably the deadly enemy of the wisdom of this world which is to say of science and it will give the name of good to whatever means serve to poison, calumniate and cry down all intellectual discipline. Paul well knew that lying that faith was necessary. Later on the church borrowed the fact from Paul. The god that Paul invented for himself, a god who reduced to absurdity the wisdom of this world especially the two great enemies of superstition, philology and medicine, is in truth only an indication of Paul resolute determination to accomplish that very thing himself to give one own will the name of god, thora that is essentially Jewish. Paul wants to dispose of the wisdom of this world his enemies are the good philologists and physicians of the Alexandrine school on them he makes his war.
